About Continuum

Formed in 1985, Continuum Contemporary Music presents the work of emerging Canadian composers alongside works by established national and foreign composers in its concert series, at festivals, on tour, over the air waves, online and through recordings. Continuum's concerts feature the core ensemble of flute, clarinet, violin, cello, piano, and percussion, as well as unusual instrumental combinations; the ensemble is made up of the top freelance orchestra and chamber musicians in Toronto. Over the past 25 years, Continuum has been responsible for commissioning and premiering close to 150 new works from emerging Canadian composers in the first stages of significant careers.

Tonight's wine specialists

Jennifer Hart has spent her career in entertainment marketing – music, film and video. After years of collecting wine, attending tutored tastings and avid reading, she decided two years ago to pursue her passion more actively and enrolled in George Brown's Wine Specialist program.

Brenda Holman has worked in the travel industry for most of her professional life. Her passion for travel has more recently been accompanied by one for wine; she has been studying wines and visiting vineyards seriously for the past several years. Brenda is currently enrolled in a sommelier program with the Canadian Association for Professional Sommeliers.

Continuum relies on the generosity of our friends and audiences to support our ongoing programming. If you would like to support Continuum through a tax-receiptable donation, please use the form below or visit continuummusic.org to donate online via Canada Helps.
